

Contents

Preface ↪ xi

Contributors ↪ xiii

Part I. Background

1

Overview of the Lidcombe Program ↪ 3

Mark Onslow

What Kind of Treatment Is the Lidcombe Program? 3

What Is the Treatment Agent in the Lidcombe Program? 6

How Is the Lidcombe Program Implemented? 7

The Two Stages of the Lidcombe Program 8

A Typical Clinic Visit with the Lidcombe Program 8

The Evidence Base for the Lidcombe Program 10

Appendix 1.A: Sampling of Events from Lidcombe Program Clinic Visits 16

References 20

2

From Laboratory to Living Room:

The Origins and Development of the Lidcombe Program ↪ 21

Mark Onslow

Minnesota, United States 21

Sydney, Australia 23

References 25

3

The Lidcombe Program in Historical Context ↪ 27

Barry Guitar

Brief History of Treatment of Stuttering in Young Children 27

What Is Traditional and What Is Different About the Lidcombe Program? 34

Conclusion 37

Acknowledgments 37

References 38

4

The Timing of Early Intervention with the Lidcombe Program 41

Ann Packman, Mark Onslow, and Joseph Attanasio

Research Findings 42

The Decision-Making Process 50

Conclusion 53

References 54

Part II. Procedures

5

Measuring Stuttering 59

Michelle Lincoln and Ann Packman

Stuttering Measures 59

Implementing Stuttering Measures 61

The Role of Measurement in the Lidcombe Program 66

Conclusion 68

References 68

6

Verbal Response-Contingent Stimulation 71

Mark Onslow

Stutter-Free Speech 71

Unambiguous Stuttering 71

Nonessential Responses 72

Kinds of Parental Verbal Response-Contingent Stimulation 72

Treatment in Structured and Unstructured Conversations 75

Reference 79

7

Maintenance of Treatment Effects 81

Margaret Webber and Mark Onslow

The Empirical Basis of Stage 2 81

When To Start Stage 2 82

Implementing Stage 2 82

A Clinical File Audit of Stage 2 84

A Typical Stage 2 Clinic Visit 85

Two Case Studies of Stage 2 86
 Transcript of a Videorecording of a Clinician Explaining Stage 2 to a Parent 89
 References 90

8

Troubleshooting ↪ 91

Elisabeth Harrison, Kerry Ttofari, Isabelle Rousseau, and Cheryl Andrews

Method 91
 Results 92
 Conclusion 99

Part III.
 Case Studies

9

Routine Case Studies ↪ 103

Isabelle Rousseau and Sue O'Brian

Oliver 103
 Lucy 107
 Bill 110
 Dean 113

10

Special Case Studies ↪ 119

Sally Hewat, Vanessa Harris, and Elisabeth Harrison

Children with Other Speech and Language Problems 120
 Children with Medical Problems 123
 Children from Non-English Speaking Backgrounds 125
 Sensitive or Shy Children 129
 Children of Working or Busy Parents 132
 Conclusion 135

Part IV.

The Lidcombe Program Around the World

11

Australia 139

Ann Packman, Isabelle Rousseau, Mark Onslow, Rebekah Dredge, Elisabeth Harrison, and Linda Wilson

Survey of Australian Clinicians' Use of the Lidcombe Program 141

Telehealth Delivery of the Lidcombe Program 143

Conclusion 145

References 146

12

The United Kingdom 147

Rosemarie Hayhow, Mary Kingston, and Rebecca Ledzion

Historical Perspectives: The 1970s and 1980s 147

Historical Perspectives: The 1990s 148

Themes and Issues in the Treatment of Early Stuttering
in the United Kingdom 150

The Introduction of the Lidcombe Program in the United Kingdom 151

Studies of Children Treated with the Lidcombe Program
in the United Kingdom 153

References 158

13

Canada 161

Rosalee Shenker and JoAnne Wilding

Number of Canadian Clinicians Using the Lidcombe Program 161

Historical Perspectives 162

Number of Canadian Children Treated with the Lidcombe Program 163

Clinical Issues in the Canadian Context 163

Cultural Issues in the Canadian Context 167

Conclusion 170

References 171

14

New Zealand 173

Mark Jones, Marjorie Blakeley, and Tika Ormond

Historical Perspectives 173

Introduction of the Lidcombe Program in New Zealand 175

A Randomized Controlled Trial of the Lidcombe Program 176

Survey of New Zealand Speech–Language Therapists 179

Conclusion 181

References 181

15

South Africa ↗ 183

Margaret Marks Wahlhaus, Joan Girson, and Caron Leary

Historical Perspectives 183

Introduction of the Lidcombe Program in South Africa 185

Summary of Clinical Experiences with the Lidcombe Program in South Africa 186

Conclusion 189

References 190

Part V.
Reflections

16

Parents Talk About the Lidcombe Program ↗ 193

Mark Onslow, Joseph Attanasio, and Elisabeth Harrison

17

Issues ↗ 199

Ann Packman

Cultural Issues 199

Procedural Issues 200

Theoretical Issues 203

Empirical Issues 204

Conclusion 205

References 206

18

Some Observations and Reflections ↗ 207

Joseph Attanasio

A New Jersey Yank in Lidcombe, Australia's Court 207

© On the Issue of Models 208

Principles of Effective Treatment 209

Advice to Clinicians Who Might Worry: Don't 210

What We Have Needed 211

Simple or Complex? 211

Is There a Theory Behind the Treatment? 212

- Measurement Is the Rule 212
- Timing of Intervention 213
- References 214

Index ↪ 215

About the Authors ↪ 223

© copyrighted material by PRO-ED, Inc.