

About the Author

O. Ivar Lovaas, PhD, serves as professor of psychology at the University of California, Los Angeles and as director of the Lovaas Institute for Early Intervention (LIFE). Ivar Lovaas and his students have conducted treatment research in autism supported by grants from NIMH since 1962. He has received many honors for his work in the field, including the Edgar Doll Award, a Distinguished Research Contribution Award from the American Psychological Association, the California Senate Award, an Honorary Doctorate, and a Guggenheim Fellowship. He has written many books and articles and directed films on the treatment of autism. He has served on the editorial boards of numerous journals and on the professional advisory boards of several parent and professional organizations.

© copyrighted material by PRO-ED, Inc.