

About the Author

Peter Reitzes, MA, CCC-SLP, is a person who stutters and a certified and licensed speech–language pathologist working in an elementary school and in private practice in Brooklyn, New York. Reitzes has presented at speech–language pathology conferences and conventions, including the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association’s annual convention, the New York and New Jersey Speech-Language-Hearing Association’s annual conventions, the Speak Easy annual convention, and an Advance magazine conference. Reitzes has facilitated workshops for FRIENDS: The National Association of Young People Who Stutter and other stuttering self-help organizations. In July, 2002, Reitzes co-facilitated “Stutter Across America”—a FRIENDS project. Stutter Across America was an eight-stop mobile workshop that brought stuttering support to cities and towns across the United States. Reitzes has been interviewed about stuttering by the New York Times, The Chicago Tribune, National Public Radio, and Fox News. He has written articles for the International Stuttering Awareness Day (ISAD) Online Conference, Advance for Speech–Language Pathologists and Audiologists, the National Stuttering Association, and FRIENDS. Reitzes is co-founder and co-editor of the online journal Journal of Stuttering Therapy: Advocacy and Research at www.journalofstuttering.com. Visit Reitzes at his homepage: www.stutterNY.com

© copyrighted material by PRO-ED, INC.