

About the Author

M. Catherine Thut is the clinical manager of the Department of Physical Therapy at Baylor Institute for Rehabilitation in Dallas, Texas. In this capacity she manages the supportive personnel and is the Center Coordinator for Clinical Education. She has recently been awarded the "Outstanding Clinical Educator" by the Texas Consortia for Clinical Education. Her extensive clinical background is in Adult Neurological Rehabilitation, PNF, manual therapy, foot dysfunction, and clinical research.

She received her B.S. degree in physical therapy from the University of Texas Medical Branch and her M.B.A. in finance from West Texas State University.

© copyrighted material by PRO-ED, Inc.