
About the Authors

Patricia K. Tollison, PhD is a mother and a grandmother. She has taught at the preschool, middle school, high school, and university levels and has served as support staff, providing assessment and consultation for teachers and parents. She is currently a psychologist in private practice in Austin, Texas. She trains and consults at the local and national levels and wrote, with Katherine Synatschk, SOS! A Practical Guide for Leading Solution-Focused Groups With Kids K–12.

Katherine O. Synatschk, PhD, LPC-S has been the director of counseling for a large urban school district, a school counselor, a school social worker, and a special education teacher. She trains and consults on school counseling issues at the local, state, national, and international levels. Currently, she is a licensed professional counselor, provides supervision to LPC interns, is an assistant professor (adjunct) at Texas State University, and the Executive Editor at PRO-ED, Inc.

Gaea Logan, MA, LPC-S is a licensed professional counselor and clinical supervisor in private practice. For over 30 years, she has been active in the dialogue between Buddhist psychology, contemplative practice, and analytic group psychotherapy. Gaea has presented nationally and internationally on the topic of healing trauma. She has served as a Fellow for Psychology Beyond Borders. She is also an avid swimmer, photographer, and chef.

© copyright material by PRO-ED, Inc.