

- Abused children. See Child abuse and neglect
- Academic progress, 194–199. See also Progress monitoring conferences
- Accommodation for children with exceptionalities in assessment, 330–333
 planning for, 30–32
- Accommodation in conflict resolution, 252
- Active listening. See Listening
- Adaptation programs, 140
- Adolescence. See Youth and young adults with exceptionalities
- Advocacy
 for elementary-age children and their families, 334–337
 in parent and family involvement model, 20, 21
 training in, for parents and families, 13, 15–16
 for young children and their families, 292, 294–296
 for youth and young adults and their families, 341–342
- African Americans. See also Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families advanced placement examinations taken by, 43
 disability distribution among special education students, 38
 disciplinary actions and, 48–50
 educational challenges of, 42–43, 45, 47–49
 foster families among, 66
 grandparents as heads of households among, 65
 in high-poverty schools, 42
 income of, 40
 placement of, in special education, 47–49
 poverty of, and related social problems, 39–42
 risk index for disabilities among, 45
 single-mother-headed households among, 62
 values of, 55, 58
- Age of majority, 344–345
- American Indians. See Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families; Native Americans
- Angry parents and family members, 231–233
- Applied behavioral analysis, 166–168. See also Behavioral intervention strategies
- Asian Americans. See also Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families communication with, 78
 community services for, 52
 disabilities among special education students, 38, 45
 diversity among, 36–37
 foster families among, 66

- in high-poverty schools, 42
- income levels of, 40
- placement of, in special education, 45, 48
- rapport-building procedures with, 78
- risk index for disabilities among, 45
- values of, 58, 59

Assessment. See also Evaluation forms

- accommodation in, 330–333
- of culturally and linguistically diverse students with exceptionalities, 39, 43–44, 46
- curriculum-based measurement (CBM), 196, 197
- of elementary-age children, 330–333
- functional assessment for behavioral intervention strategies, 168–170, 176
- IDEA on, 44, 304–308
- informal procedures for, 196, 198
- information on, during initial contact and information exchange conferences, 135–139
- needs analysis of parents and families, 18–19
- parental input on, 306–308, 330–333
- parents' permission for, 306–307
- parents' requests for, 307–308
- prereferral assessment prior to special education services, 120–121
- procedures for, 138, 149
- during progress monitoring conferences, 195–198
- standardized assessment, 195–196, 330–331
- of student progress and communicating information to parents and families, 142, 144–146

AT devices, 288–289

Autism, 38, 45, 286–287, 410–413, 420, 429–430

Behavior, 159. See also Behavioral intervention strategies

Behavior disorders (BD), 46, 406–409, 419, 427–429

Behavior Management Conference Evaluation Form, 421–425

Behavioral intervention strategies

- applied behavioral analysis, 166–168
- Behavior Management Conference Evaluation Form, 421–425
- charting and analysis of behavioral data, 165, 174–175
- definition of behavior, 159
- demonstration graph form for, 175
- establishment and implementation of intervention procedures and performance goals, 166, 175–182
- follow-up meetings with parents on, 166, 182
- forms for, 173, 175, 179, 421–425
- functional assessment for, 168–170, 176
- identification and operational definition of behavior or concern, 164–168
- identification of environments and situations including target behavior, 165, 168–170
- identification of factors supporting target behavior, 165, 170
- manipulation of consequences and antecedent conditions, 170

- measurement process for, 171–174
 - positive or adaptive behaviors and, 168
 - procedural plan sheet, 178–180
 - procedural steps in, 165–166
 - recording form for measurement of, 172–173
 - recording target behavior, 165, 171–174
 - reinforcement and, 176–177
 - role-playing materials on, 419–425
 - training parents in, 16, 164–182, 295, 419–425
 - underlying principles of, 159–161
 - uses and benefits of, 160–161
- Blacks. See African Americans; Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families
- Blended families, 63–64, 113
- CBM (curriculum-based measurement), 196, 197
- Cell phone text messaging, 145
- Center-based programs for young children, 280–281
- Channel in communication process, 246
- Child abuse and neglect, 8, 51, 65, 66
- Children with exceptionalities. See Elementary-age children with exceptionalities; Young children with exceptionalities; Youth and young adults with exceptionalities
- Civil Rights Project, Harvard University, 42–43
- Clarifying responses and questions, 85–86
- Classrooms. See also Educators
- assignment completions, 201–203
 - educational challenges of minority students, 42–43
 - homework and, 333–334
 - management of, and emotional-social intervention, 140–141
 - philosophy and administration of, 140
 - schedules of, 140
 - unplanned conferences with parents during class time, 237–238
- Collaborative problem solving. See also Conflict resolution, 252–257; Conferencing and collaboration
- Communication. See also Conferencing and collaboration
- with angry parents and family members, 231–233
 - channel in, 246
 - conflict resolution and, 246–249, 255–259
 - congruence of message, 246–247
 - decoding in, 247–248
 - with emotionally overwrought parents and family members, 233–235
 - encoder in, 246
 - feedback in, 248
 - with garrulous parents and family members, 235–236
 - home-school partnerships and, 76–77
 - listening skills, 80–93, 255–259
 - with minority parents and families, 77–80
 - by minority students, 49
 - in parent and family involvement model, 20, 21

- with parents of limited English proficiency, 78–79
 - process of, 246–248
 - during progress monitoring conferences, 210–211
 - on progress of students to parents and families, 142, 144–146
 - rapport with families and, 77–80
 - technology and, 93–94, 145–146, 230
 - during unplanned conferences, 227–228
- Communication journal, 93
- Community schools, 52–53
- Community services
- for minority students and their families, 50–53
 - for nontraditional families, 70
- Computer e-mail, 94, 145, 230
- Conferencing and collaboration. See also Conflict resolution; Initial contact and information exchange conferences; Progress monitoring conferences; Unplanned conferences
- conflict resolution conferences, 241–268
 - development of personalized conferencing philosophy and style, 21–22
 - empathy and, 81–82
 - establishing home-school partnerships, 75–77
 - IEP conferences, 299–301, 310–322, 354–357
 - initial contact and information exchange conferences, 119–154
 - listening skills and, 80–93
 - progress monitoring conferences, 191–221
 - rapport with families and, 77–80
 - responses to parents' questions and, 218
 - technology and, 93–94, 230
 - trust in, 97–115
 - unplanned conferences, 223–239
 - variables in, 249–251
 - vignettes on, 75, 97–99, 119–120, 191–192, 223, 241–242
- Confidentiality, 111–113
- Conflict resolution
- accommodation in, 252
 - approaches to, 251–257
 - appropriate use of power for, 253–255
 - assessment of educator's style of, 262–263
 - availability of pertinent facts for, 253
 - avoidance of conflict, 251
 - collaborative problem solving for, 252–257
 - communication skills and, 246–249, 255–259
 - competition in, 252
 - conflict as normal and healthy, 242–243
 - constructive openness for, 256–257
 - due process safeguards, 262, 264–268
 - evaluating mutually agreed-on problem-solving strategy and making modifications, 260–262
 - evaluation form for conference on, 431–433

- factors associated with development of unhealthy conflict, 243–245
- identifying and evaluating possible solutions for, 259–260
- implementing mutually agreed-on problem-solving strategy, 260
- institutional support for, 255
- model process for, 257–262
- nature of conflict and its perceived importance, 249–250
- potential for, 249
- prior relationship and rapport, 251
- role-playing materials on, 427–433
- setting conditions for, 257–259
- time and resources required for, 250
- variables associated with, 249–251
- vignette on, 241–242
- willingness for participants to lose, 250–251
- Conflict Resolution Conference Evaluation Form, 431–433
- Congruence of message, 246–247
- Constructive openness, 256–257
- Consultation, 17
- Continuous measurements, 171
- Counseling, 17, 236–237, 294–295
- Cultural capital, 49–50
- Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families. See also Diversity assessment
 - of, 39, 43–44, 46
 - awareness of value differences of, 54–59
 - community services and, 50–53
 - definitions pertaining to, 36
 - disability distribution of, for special education students, 38
 - disciplinary actions and, 48–50
 - educational challenges facing, 42–50
 - in gifted and talented programs, 39, 45–46
 - overrepresentation of, in special education, 37–39, 44–48
 - partnerships with families of, 53–60
 - placement of, in special education, 37–39, 44–48
 - poverty of, 39–43, 47–51
 - professionals' attitudes toward, 54–58
 - rapport-building procedures with minority groups, 77–80
 - risk index for specific racial and ethnic groups, 44–45
 - transition planning and, 353–354
 - trust and, 108
- Culturally and linguistically diverse teachers, 46–47, 55
- Culture, 36. See also Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families; Diversity
- Curriculum-based measurement (CBM), 196, 197
- Decoding in communication, 247–248
- Developmental delay, 37, 38, 274
- Developmental history of child, 125–132
- Diagnostic information. See also Assessment
 - during initial contact and information exchange conferences, 135–139

- parents' responses to, 286–287
 - during progress monitoring conferences, 195–196
- Diploma, 347–348
- Disabilities. See also Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families; Elementary-age children with exceptionalities; Young children with exceptionalities; Youth and young adults with exceptionalities; and specific disabilities
 - information regarding, during initial contact and information exchange conferences, 135–139, 146–148
 - by race and ethnicity among special education students, 38
 - risk index for, 44–45
- Disciplinary actions, 48–50
- Diversity
 - assessment of minority students, 39, 43–44, 46
 - community services and, 50–53
 - cultural and linguistic diversity, 36–60
 - disciplinary actions and minority students, 48–50
 - educational challenges facing minority students, 42–50
 - family-structure diversity, 60–72
 - and “melting pot” analogy, 54–55, 72
 - partnerships with minority families, 53–60
 - placement in special education and, 44–48
 - poverty and, 8, 39–43, 47–51
 - professionals' attitudes toward minority groups, 54–58
 - strategies appropriate to particular minorities, 58–60
 - values of minority families, 54–59
 - vignette on, 35–36
- Divorce, 61–63, 71–72, 113
- Doe v. Withers*, 112–113
- Domestic violence, 50
- Door-opening statements, 85
- Dropout rates, 42, 43
- Drug abuse. See Substance abuse
- Due process safeguards, 262, 264–268
- Duration recording, 172
- DVDs, 145–146

- E-mail, 94, 145, 230
- Early childhood special education. See Young children with exceptionalities
- Educational conferencing. See Conferencing
- Educators. See also Classrooms
 - assertiveness of, during unplanned conferences, 226
 - attitudes of, and strategies for unplanned conferences, 224–228
 - attitudes of, toward minority families and students, 54–58
 - attitudes of, toward nontraditional families, 71
 - and consideration of needs of parents and families, 10–11
 - culturally and linguistically diverse teachers, 46–47, 55
 - difficulties of, with providing services to parents and families, 3–4
 - parents' attitudes toward, 336

- progress monitoring conferences and attitudes of, 210–211
 - qualifications for, 335–336
 - role of, in conferencing with parents and families, 11–12
- Elementary-age children with exceptionalities. See also IDEA (Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act)
 - assessment of, 330–333
 - emotional support and understanding for parents of, 301–302
 - homework for, 333–334
 - IDEA on, 303–330
 - information exchange opportunities for parents and families of, 302–334
 - service and advocacy needs of children and their families, 334–337
 - vignette on, 299–301
- Elementary and Secondary Education Act. See No Child Left Behind Act
- Emotional disturbance, 38, 45, 406–409, 419, 427–429
- Emotional-social intervention, 140–141
- Emotional support for parents and families, 283–286, 301–302, 345–346
- Emotionally overwrought parents and family members, 233–235
- Empathy, 81–82
- Employment of youth and young adults, 352
- Empowerment, 16, 21, 296
- Encoder in communication process, 246
- Enrichment programs, 140
- Ethnicity, 36. See also Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families; Diversity
- Evaluation forms. See also Assessment
 - Analyzing Your [Conflict Resolution] Style, 262, 263
 - Behavior Management Conference Evaluation Form, 421–425
 - Conflict Resolution Conference Evaluation Form, 431–433
 - IEP Conference Evaluation Form, 320–321
 - Initial Conference Evaluation Form, 414–417
 - Progress Report Conference Evaluation Form, 215–217
- Event-recording techniques, 171–172
- Exceptionalities. See Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families; Disabilities; Elementary-age children with exceptionalities; Young children with exceptionalities; Youth and young adults with exceptionalities; and specific disabilities
- Extended-service schools, 52–53
- Families. See Parents and families
- Family-centered services for young children, 274–278, 295–296
- Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 111–112
- Family-school partnerships. See Home-school partnerships
- Family-structure diversity. See also Diversity; Parents and families
 - blended families, 63–64, 113
 - divorce and, 61–63, 71–72, 113
 - evaluation of, during initial contact and information exchange conferences, 152
 - foster families, 66–68
 - gay and lesbian parents, 68–69
 - grandparents as heads of families, 8, 64–66
 - priority concerns of nontraditional families, 70

- professionals' attitudes toward, 71
 - resources and services for nontraditional families, 70
 - single-parent families, 60–62
 - time, energy, and financial restrictions of nontraditional parents, 71
 - working with nontraditional families, 69–72
- Family systems model, 28–30
- FAPE (free and appropriate education), 304
- FERPA (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act), 111–112
- Fighting at school, 8
- Foster families, 66–68
- Free and appropriate education (FAPE), 304
- Full-inclusion movement, 322–330
- Full-service schools, 52–53
- Functional assessment, 168–170, 176. See also Assessment
- Functional communication training, 295
-
- Garrulous parents and family members, 235–236
- Gay and lesbian parents, 68–69
- Getting to Know Your Child questionnaire, 292, 293–294
- Gifted and talented students, 39, 45–46, 405–409, 419, 427–429
- Grandparents, 8, 64–66
- Group conferences, 146–149. See also IEP Conferences
-
- Head Start, 280
- Health insurance, 8, 51
- High school diploma, 347–348
- Hispanics. See also Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families
- advanced placement examinations taken by, 43
 - communication with, 79
 - disability distribution among special education students, 38
 - diversity among, 36
 - educational challenges of, 42, 45, 48
 - foster families among, 66
 - grandparents as heads of households among, 65
 - in high-poverty schools, 42
 - home language of, 8
 - placement of, in special education, 45, 48
 - population of, 8
 - poverty of, and related social problems, 39–42
 - rapport-building procedures with, 79
 - risk index for disabilities among, 45
 - values of, 59
- Home-based programs for young children, 279–280
- Home-school notebook, 93
- Home-school partnerships. See also Conferencing and collaboration
- communication and, 76–77
 - defining features of, 76
 - establishment of, 75–77

- Home visits, 292
- Homelessness, 41, 79–80
- Homework, 333–334
- Hospital-based programs for young children, 278–279

- IDEA (Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act)
 - on age of majority, 344–345
 - on assessment, 44, 304–308
 - on AT devices, 288
 - confidentiality and, 111–112
 - on developmental delay, 274
 - on due process safeguards, 264–267
 - on free and appropriate education (FAPE), 304
 - on IEPs and IEP conferences, 309–322
 - importance of generally, 303–304
 - and individual needs of students with disabilities, 19–20
 - on individualized family service plans (IFSPs), 276–277, 289, 291
 - on least restrictive environment and inclusion, 322–330
 - on natural environments, 282
 - on parental access to records, 308
 - parents' knowledge of requirements of, 360
 - on procedural safeguards, 308–309
 - on progress monitoring, 196, 198
 - provisions of, 304–330
 - reporting requirements for race and ethnicity data under, 37
 - on reporting student progress to parents, 144
 - school reform and, 6
 - on special educators' qualifications, 335–336
 - on surrogate parents, 66, 308
 - on transition plan and services, 351–352
 - on young children with exceptionalities, 273–274, 276–277
- IEP Conference Evaluation Form, 320–321
- IEP conferences, 299–301, 310–322, 354–357
- IEPs (Individualized Education Programs)
 - access to information in, by school personnel, 112
 - components of, 309–310
 - and due process safeguards, 266
 - educational performance section of, 196
 - evaluation form for IEP conference, 320–321
 - goals and objectives in, 144, 187, 192, 309, 311, 313
 - implementation of, 112–113
 - indicators of effective IEP meetings, 311–312
 - intimidation experienced by parents regarding, 318–319, 322
 - language and, 318
 - notification of, 206
 - parental participation in, 5, 15, 67, 93, 121, 123, 299–301, 310, 313, 314–322, 357
 - progress monitoring and, 196, 198
 - progress monitoring conferences and, 212

- rapport established with parents prior to IEP meeting, 123
- transition planning and, 354–356
- trust and, 314, 318
- vignette on, 299–301
- youth and young adults' participation in, 343, 354–356
- IFSPs (individualized family service plans), 254, 276–278, 289, 291
- Inclusion, 322–330
- Individualized Education Programs. See IEPs (Individualized Education Programs)
- Individualized family service plans (IFSPs), 254, 276–278, 289, 291
- Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act. See IDEA (Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act)
- Information exchange. See also Initial contact and information exchange conferences
 - on assessment, 330–333
 - on educational programming for youth and young adults, 348–351
 - for elementary-age children's parents, 302–334
 - on high school diploma, 347–348
 - on homework, 333–334
 - on IDEA, 303–330
 - in parent and family involvement model, 13, 14–15
 - on programs for students ages 18 to 21, 358–359
 - on transition for youth and young adults, 351–358
 - for young children's parents, 286–289
 - for youth and young adults' parents, 347–359
- Initial Conference Evaluation Form, 414–417
- Initial contact and information exchange conferences
 - assessment and diagnostic information provided during, 135–139
 - developmental history during, 125–132
 - educational program description provided during, 139–142, 148–149
 - evaluating parents and families during, 149–154
 - evaluating student progress and disseminating this information, 142, 144–146
 - evaluation form for, 414–417
 - evaluation procedures description during, 149
 - family functions evaluated during, 153
 - family interactions evaluated during, 152–153
 - family life cycles evaluated during, 153–154
 - family structure evaluated during, 152
 - group conferences for, 146–149
 - inclusive nature of, 120–122
 - information regarding exceptionality during, 135–139, 146–148
 - medical history during, 129–130
 - obtaining information from parents and families during, 124–134
 - parental goals and expectations during, 133–134
 - parents' analysis of child's attitudes and preferences, 126, 132–133
 - parents' statement of issues during, 125, 128–129
 - parents' strengths and weaknesses evaluated during, 150–152
 - preferential assessment before, 120–121
 - problem-solving alternatives information during, 149
 - providing information to parents and families during, 134–149
 - purposes of, 122–154

- rapport established during, 122–124
 - role-playing materials, 405–417
 - school history during, 131, 133
 - sociological information during, 134
 - vignette on, 119–120
- Institute for Community Inclusion, 137
- Integration, 325
- Internet, 146
- Interpreters, 78–79
- Interval-recording systems, 172
- Intervention by parents. See Treatment and intervention by parents
- Language differences. See Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families
- Latinos. See Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families; Hispanics
- Learning disabilities (LD), 38, 45, 46, 48, 261–262
- Least restrictive environment, 322–330
- Lesbian parents. See Gay and lesbian parents
- Linguistic diversity. See Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families; Diversity
- Listening
 - active listening, 83–84
 - anxiety-reduction measures and, 92
 - clarifying responses and questions, 85–86
 - conflict resolution and, 255–259
 - developing listening skills, 82–84
 - door-opening statements, 85
 - empathy and, 81–82
 - importance of, 80–81
 - interferences with, 84
 - nonverbal behaviors, 89
 - paraphrasing, 86–87
 - passive listening, 82–83
 - physical environment for, 90–93
 - reflecting, 87–89
 - silence, 89–90
 - specific techniques for, 85–90
 - summarization, 90
- Literacy skills, 348–349
- Mainstreaming, 325
- McKinney-Vento Homeless Act, 79–80
- Medical history of child, 129–130
- “Melting pot” analogy, 54–55, 72
- Mental illness, 50
- Mental retardation (MR), 38, 45, 46, 137, 264, 322–323, 410–413, 420, 429–430
- Minority Attitude Self-Assessment Survey, 56–57
- Minority children. See Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families; Diversity
- Monitoring students’ progress. See Progress monitoring conferences

- National Association for Retarded Citizens, 322–323
- National Association for the Education of Young Children, 289
- National Center on Secondary Education and Transition, 341–342
- Native Americans. See also Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families
 - communication with, 79
 - disability distribution among special education students, 37, 38
 - foster families among, 66
 - income of, 40
 - placement of, in special education, 45, 47
 - poverty of, and related social problems, 41
 - rapport-building procedures with, 79
 - risk index for disabilities among, 45
 - values of, 55, 59
- Natural environments, 282–283, 295
- Needs analysis, 18–19
- Neonatal intensive care unit (NICU), 278–279, 283, 290
- NICU (neonatal intensive care unit), 278–279, 283, 290
- No Child Left Behind Act, 6, 330, 335, 336
- Noneducational settings for conferences, 230–231
- Nontraditional families. See Family-structure diversity
- Nonverbal behaviors, 89

- Occupations therapists (OTs), 204
- OTs. See Occupations therapists (OTs)

- Paraphrasing, 86–87
- Parent and family involvement model. See also Conferencing and collaboration
 - advocacy and skill development level, 20, 21
 - counseling, consultation, and support programs, 17
 - diagram of, 13
 - home and community program implementation, 13, 16–17
 - individualization within, 19–21
 - information exchange, 13, 14–15
 - levels of, 20–21
 - needs assessment, 18–19
 - ongoing communication level, 20, 21
 - parent and family coordinated service program, 13, 17–18
 - partnership and advocacy training, 13, 15–16
 - partnership level, 20, 21
 - recognition and awareness level, 20–21
- Parent and family programs, 142, 143
- Parents and families. See also Conferencing and collaboration; Elementary-age children with exceptionalities; Family-structure diversity; Home-school partnerships; Treatment and intervention by parents; Young children with exceptionalities; Youth and young adults with exceptionalities
 - changing nature of family, 7–9
 - characteristics of family membership, 152
 - counseling for, 17, 236–237, 294–295

- development of personalized conferencing philosophy and style with, 21–22
 - difficulties of professionals with providing services to, 3–4
 - educational level of parents, 151
 - educators' role in conferencing with, 11–12
 - emotional support for, 283–286, 301–302, 345–346
 - empowerment of, 16, 21, 296
 - evaluation of, during initial contact and information exchange conferences, 149–154
 - functions of families, 153
 - goals and expectations of, for their child, 133–134
 - historical perspective on, 4–12
 - impact of children and youth with exceptionalities on, 22–28
 - individualization within model of parent and family involvement, 19–21
 - information exchange opportunities for, 286–289, 302–303
 - interactions among family members, 152–153
 - life cycles of families, 153–154
 - model of parent and family involvement, 12–21
 - needs of and needs analysis on, 10–11, 18–19
 - personality factors of, 151
 - physical and health considerations of, 151
 - and planning for accommodation of child with exceptionality, 30–32
 - on quality of education for exceptional children, 336
 - reactions to children and youth with exceptionalities by, 24–26
 - and school reform, 6–7
 - sibling reactions to children and youth with exceptionalities, 27–28
 - socioeconomic status of and sociological information on, 134, 152
 - strengths and weaknesses of, 150–152
 - support and consideration of all family members, 28–33
 - value systems of, 9–10, 54–59
- Partnerships
- and awareness of value differences, 54–59
 - with culturally and linguistically diverse families, 53–60
 - establishing home-school partnerships, 75–77
 - parent and family involvement at partnership level, 20, 21
 - strategies appropriate to particular minorities, 58–60
 - training for parents and families for, 13, 15–16
- PDA's (personal digital assistants), 94
- PEECH (Programming for Early Education of Children With Handicaps), 280–281
- Pennsylvania Association for Retarded Children (PARC) v. Commonwealth of Pennsylvania*, 264
- Personal digital assistants (PDAs), 94
- Physical therapists (PTs), 141, 204
- Placement in special education, 37–39, 44–48
- Plurality. See Diversity
- Postsecondary education, 356–359
- Poverty, 8, 39–43, 47–51, 61
- Power
- appropriate use of, for conflict resolution, 253–255
 - definition of, 253

- Preschool children. See Young children with exceptionalities
- Prevent Blindness America, 203–204
- Problem solving. See also Conflict resolution
 - conflict resolution and collaborative problem solving, 252–257
 - trust and solution-oriented, noncompetitive problem solving, 110
- Programming for Early Education of Children With Handicaps (PEECH), 280–281
- Progress monitoring conferences
 - academic progress, 194–199
 - agenda of, 193–204
 - clarity and specificity during, 209–210
 - collaborative discussion during, 205
 - concluding the conference, 211
 - conducting the conference, 208–211
 - correct amount of time for, 207
 - evaluation form for, 215–217
 - evaluation of, 213–217
 - feedback to other professional following, 212–213
 - individualized programs and schedules for, 192–193
 - notification for, 194, 205–206
 - performance of agreed-on duties following, 213
 - physical progress, 203–204
 - postconference activities, 211–217
 - preconference planning, 207–208
 - preparing parents and family members to participate in, 218–221
 - professional attitude during, 210–211
 - progress monitoring chart, 197
 - promotion of parental attendance at, 206
 - purposes of, 192
 - recording results of, 211–212
 - responding to questions from parents and family members, 214, 217–218
 - reviewing results of, with student, 213
 - social progress, 198–203
 - staging the conference, 205–217
 - successful outcome of, 193
 - timing of, 192
 - vignette on, 191–192
- Progress Report Conference Evaluation Form, 215–217
- Progress reports, 144–146, 215–217. See also Progress monitoring conferences
- PTs. See Physical therapists (PTs)
- Punishers and negative consequences, 176

- Race, 36. See also Culturally and linguistically diverse students and families; Diversity
- Rapport
 - conflict resolution and, 251
 - during initial contact and information exchange conferences, 122–124
 - with minority families, 77–80
- Reflecting process, 87–89

- Reinforcement
 behavioral intervention strategies and, 176–177
 punishers and negative consequences, 176
 token exchange system, 177
 trust and, 104
- Related services, 141
- Remediation programs, 140
- Reports to parents, 144–146, 215–217. See also Progress monitoring conferences
- Risk index for disabilities, 44–45
- Risk taking and trust, 100–101, 103–106
- Risk-Taking Questionnaire, 104, 105–106
- Schedules for classroom and school, 140
- School-community initiatives, 52–53
- School philosophy and administration, 140
- School reform, 6–7
- School schedule, 140
- Secondary-age students. See Youth and young adults with exceptionalities
- Self-determination for youth and young adults, 342–344
- Siblings, 27–28
- Silence in listening, 89–90
- Single-parent families, 60–62
- Social progress, 198–203. See also Progress monitoring conferences
- Social services. See Community services
- Special education. See Conferencing and collaboration; Disabilities; IDEA (Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act); IEPs (Individualized Education Programs); Initial contact and information exchange conferences; Placement in special education
- Stepparents. See Blended families
- Student progress reports, 144–146, 215–217. See also Progress monitoring conferences
- Sturge-Weber syndrome, 299–301
- Substance abuse, 50, 66
- Summarization, 90
- Support groups, 17
- Support personnel and related services, 141
- Surrogate parents, 66, 308
- Talkative parents and family members, 235–236
- Teachers. See Educators
- Technology
 for communication, 93–94, 145–146, 230
 parents' skills with, 146
- Teenage pregnancy, 8, 41
- Teenagers. See Youth and young adults with exceptionalities
- Telephone conferences, 228–229
- Telephone contacts, 144
- Testing. See Assessment

- Time sampling, 172
- Token exchange system, 177
- Tracking, 349
- Training for parents and families
 - in behavioral intervention strategies, 16, 164–182, 295, 419–425
 - functional communication training, 295
 - partnership and advocacy training, 13, 15–16
 - on progress monitoring conferences, 219–221
 - for tutoring, 182–187
- Transition plan, 351
- Transitions
 - parental involvement in transition planning, 356, 357
 - to postsecondary educational settings, 356–359
 - for young children and their families, 289–292
 - for youth and young adults, 351–358, 362
- Traveling notebook, 93
- Treatment and intervention by parents
 - behavioral intervention strategies, 159–161
 - historical perspective and overview of issues on, 158–164
 - tutoring programs, 161–164, 182–187
 - vignette on, 157–158
- Trust in family-professional relationship
 - advocacy for children, 107–108
 - collaborative nature of, 99–104
 - confidentiality and, 111–113
 - conflict and absence of, 245
 - cultural diversity and, 108
 - development of, 104, 106–111
 - dos and don'ts for, 110–111
 - honesty and, 110
 - identification of goals and outcomes and, 110
 - parent participation in IEPs, 314, 318
 - parity-based relationships and, 109
 - reassurance and model for interpersonal risk taking, 103–106
 - reinforcement and, 104
 - risk taking and, 100–101, 103–106
 - safety conditions for, 101–102
 - solution-oriented, noncompetitive problem solving and, 110
 - values and development of, 113–114
 - vignette on, 97–99
- Tutoring programs, 161–164, 182–187
- Uninsured children, 8, 51
- Unplanned conferences
 - with angry parents and family members, 231–233
 - assertiveness of educators during, 226
 - communication skills for, 227–228
 - e-mail messages, 230

- educators' attitudes and strategies for, 224–228
 - with emotionally overwrought parents and family members, 233–235
 - with garrulous parents and family members, 235–236
 - noneducational settings for, 230–231
 - with parents and families seeking counseling for themselves, 236–237
 - with parents during class time, 237–238
 - preparation for, by educators, 228
 - structure and guidelines for, 226–227
 - telephone conferences, 228–229
 - types of, 228–238
 - vignette on, 223
- Values
 - conflict and differences in, 245
 - diversity of, among parents and families, 9–10
 - Minority Attitude Self-Assessment Survey, 56–57
 - of minority families, 54–59
 - professionals' awareness of, 54–59
 - trust and willingness of collaborate, 113–114
- Videos, 145–146
- Vision problems, 203–204
- Whites
 - advanced placement examinations taken by, 43
 - disability distribution among special education students, 38
 - foster families among, 66
 - gay and lesbian parents among, 68
 - in gifted and talented programs, 39, 45–46
 - grandparents as heads of households among, 65
 - in high-poverty schools, 42
 - income of, 40
 - placement of, in special education, 45
 - risk index for disabilities among, 45
- Wraparound approach, 52
- Young children with exceptionalities
 - AT devices for, 288–289
 - center-based programs for, 280–281
 - combined programs for, 281
 - eligibility for services, 273–274
 - emotional support for parents of, 283–286
 - family-centered services for, 274–278, 295–296
 - home visits with parents of, 292
 - home-based programs for, 279–280
 - hospital-based programs for, 278–279
 - IDEA on, 273–274, 276–277
 - IFSPs (individualized family service plans) on, 254, 276–278, 289, 291
 - information exchange opportunities for parents and families of, 286–289

- natural environments for, 282–283, 295
- program types for, 278–281
- questionnaire on, 292, 293–294
- service and advocacy needs of children and their families, 292, 294–296
- standards for practice on, 289
- transitions for, 289–292
- vignette on, 271–272

Youth and young adults with exceptionalities

- age of majority for, 344–345
- developmental issues of, 340–341, 345–346
- diploma for, 347–348
- educational programming for, 348–351
- emotional support for parents of, 345–346
- employment of, 352
- literacy skills for, 348–349
- programs for students ages 18 to 21, 358–359
- self-determination for, 342–344
- service and advocacy needs for youth and their families, 341–342, 359–362
- tracking and, 349
- transition for, 351–358, 362
- vignette on, 339–340