

Contents

Preface	ix
1 The Mission, Role, and Competencies of the Rehabilitation Counselor	1
Stanford E. Rubin, Richard T. Roessler, Phillip D. Rumrill, Jr., and Mykal Leslie
2 Vocational- and Career-Counseling Skills for the Rehabilitation Counselor	27
3 The Intake Interview	57
Roy C. Farley and Stanford E. Rubin
4 Medical Evaluation	79
5 Psychological Evaluation	89
6 Vocational Evaluation	105
Brent Thomas Williams, Richard T. Roessler, and Richard J. Baker
7 Vocational Alternatives for Clients Not Referred for Vocational Evaluation	133
8 Preparing and Planning for the Rehabilitation Program	151
9 Job Placement	177
10 Overcoming Environmental Barriers to Employment Through Reasonable Accommodations in the Workplace	207
11 Systematic Caseload Management	241
Reed Greenwood and Richard T. Roessler
12 Multicultural Considerations in the Rehabilitation Counseling Process	255
Walter Chung, Stanford E. Rubin, and Weihe Huang
13 Family-Centered Rehabilitation Case Management	321
Richard T. Roessler and Walter Chung
Appendix: Practice in the Use of Case Management Principles	349
References	365
Index	405
About the Authors	429