The king became suspicious of the queen and had his two (of spades) bodyguards, the jack of clubs and the jack of spades, watch her. One day at ten (of clubs) minutes before eight (of clubs) o'clock, the queen left the castle to visit her friend the jack of diamonds. When the king of hearts learned about her visit, his heart was broken in two (of hearts)."

2. Collect the cards in order and give them to the client. The client retells the story while placing the cards in sequence.
