

About the Authors

---

Robin M. Strode, M.A., CCC-SLP has had 21 years experience as a speech-language pathologist. She has been in private practice for 13 years. In addition to her private practice, Robin has served as a school consultant and part-time instructor in the Communication Disorders Department at the University of Kentucky. She formerly worked in the public schools for eight years. Robin has special interest in working with preschool and early elementary-aged children with developmental delays, language disorders, and/or speech disorders. Easy Does It for Apraxia Preschool is Robin's third publication with LinguiSystems.

Catherine Chamberlain, M.A., CCC-SLP has had 23 years experience as a speech-language pathologist. She maintains a private practice serving three- to sixteen-year-olds. Catherine also works in the summers at the Early Childhood Development Center in Winchester, Kentucky, and she formerly worked in the public schools for 14 years. She has special interest in working with students with autism, mental disabilities, and multiple handicaps. Easy Does It for Apraxia Preschool is Catherine's fifth publication with LinguiSystems.

August 1994

Dedication

---

To the ones who have taught me so much about life and living fully: my parents, Pat and Harry Miller, and Helen and Stacy who will always be in my memory. And to Tom and Cole who make my life a wondrous adventure. — Robin

To my family and my friends. And especially to my husband, Chris, who is my best friend and number one supporter. — Catherine

Illustrations by Dan Good, Morning Glory Studio, Beth Ducey, and Margaret Warner