

About the Authors

Andrea M. Lazzari, Ed.D., is a speech-language pathologist for Henrico County Public Schools in Richmond, Virginia. She has previously worked in a community clinic and in private practice. She has also taught preschool students with disabilities and was the Supervisor of Early Childhood Special Education Programs for the state of Virginia. She also served as a teacher trainer at the college and university levels. She is the author or co-author of numerous publications with LinguiSystems, including No-Glamour Question Structure: Wh- Questions, No-Glamour Question Structure: Interrogative Reversals, Vocabulary To Go, and the HELP series.

Patricia M. Peters, M.Ed., M.P.S., CCC-SLP, is a speech-language pathologist in private practice in Roanoke, Virginia, and is an adjudicator of speech and language disability claims for the Department of Rehabilitative Services for the Commonwealth of Virginia. She has worked in a community speech and hearing clinic; a private, outpatient rehabilitation clinic; and in a Level 1 acute and trauma center and rehabilitation hospital. In these settings she has gained experience working with all ages and communication disorders, with specific interest in traumatic brain injury, post stroke, laryngectomy, and voice, as well as articulation and language disorders of varied etiology. Patti is a Fellow of the Speech-Language-Hearing Association of Virginia and the recipient of the DiCarlo Award for Excellence in Clinical Achievement for the Commonwealth of Virginia. She is the co-author of HELP 1, HELP 2, HELP 3, HELP 4, HELP 5, HELP Elementary, and HELP for Auditory Processing.

Dedication

This book is dedicated to Rev. Augustine Cunningham, O.S.B. who as a young priest inspired me by his eloquent, seemingly effortless command of the spoken word. May this book inspire him to continue his search for the words that now elude him, and assist him and those who work with him on his journey to recovery.
