
About the Author

Monica Gustafson has been a speech language pathologist in the St. James-Assiniboia School Division in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada since 1977. Monica is responsible for intervention to elementary-aged students and providing storytelling to children throughout the division. She also writes a column for the Winnipeg Parent Newsmagazine to promote public awareness of speech and language. An author of numerous speech and language programs, this is Monica's first publication with LinguSystems.

Monica and her husband Ron live in Winnipeg with their two children, Kari and Erik. In her spare time Monica enjoys reading, traveling, and volunteering as a recruitment advisor for her chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Dedication

"Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some stay for a while and leave footprints on our hearts that last a lifetime."

Anonymous

This book is dedicated to my American "mom and dad," Irene and Larry Rutherford, who welcomed me into their family during my college years and truly made me feel like their "Canadian daughter."

Cover Design by Chris Claus
Page Layout by Jamie Bellagamba
Illustrations by Margaret Warner
Edited by Barb Truman