Pam Britton Reese, M.A., CCC-SLP, owns a private practice, CommunicAid Plus, where she provides speech and language services to children and adults. She is also an educational consultant to public and private schools.

Pam first became interested in Alzheimer's disease (AD) when her mother-in-law was diagnosed with the disease in 1993. Pam's consultant work with families as they struggle with AD led to the writing of this book.

The Source for Alzheimer's & Dementia is Pam's second publication with LinguiSystems. She is also co-author of Autism & PDD: Social Skills Lessons.
