

About the Authors

Constance Lund Rozendaal, MS, CCC-SLP, is currently in private practice in the Seattle/Bellevue area focusing on language and learning. In addition to working in the clinic setting, Constance has worked in public and private schools and in homes. She received her BS in Speech and Hearing Sciences from the University of Washington and her MS in Communicative Disorders from the University of Wisconsin–Madison. Constance lives in Issaquah, Washington, with her husband.

Carolyn Gottschall Snyder, MS, CCC-SLP, is currently working in private practice in the San Francisco Bay Area. Her clinical experience ranges from working in public and private schools to clinic and home settings. Carolyn received her BS and MS in Communicative Disorders from the University of Wisconsin–Madison.

Prior to opening their private practices, Constance and Carolyn spent 5 years together running a language and learning clinic in the San Francisco Bay Area. No-Glamour Memory, Second Edition, is Constance and Carolyn's second publication with PRO-ED. They are also the authors of Executive Functions Training–Elementary.
