

Who Am I?

➔ Read each short dialog. Then have a student identify which picture on page 8 matches what you said.

1. Look at the top row of pictures and listen to figure out which person is talking.
Hi, Megan. How have you been feeling? First I'll listen to your heartbeat. Then I'll look in your eyes and ears. Who am I? a doctor
2. Look at the middle row of pictures and listen to figure out which person is talking.
I did my best out there today. When I came up to bat, I knew I had a chance to win the game. I hoped I would hit a home run. Who am I? a baseball player
3. Look at the middle row of pictures and listen to figure out which person is talking.
I love to work outside. I also like to grow things. My job puts food on everyone's table. I ride a tractor. I also take care of my animals. Who am I? a farmer
4. Look at the bottom row of pictures and listen to figure out which person is talking.
Please be careful because these plates are hot. I'll bring you some catsup. Is there anything else you would like? Who am I? a food server
5. Look at the bottom row of pictures and listen to figure out which person is talking.
I'm tired and my feet hurt. It's been a long day. I delivered over 100 pounds of letters and packages today on foot. Who am I? a mail carrier
6. Look at the top row of pictures and listen to figure out which person is talking.
This house is going to look nice. The kitchen cabinets turned out great. Tomorrow I'll finish building the shelves around the TV. Who am I? a carpenter
7. Look at the top row of pictures and listen to figure out which person is talking.
We're working as a team to get this fire under control. We've already checked all the rooms. Everyone got out safely. Who am I? a firefighter
8. Look at the middle row of pictures and listen to figure out which person is talking. I love my job. It's great helping kids learn new things. At the beginning of the year, I have a roomful of new faces. Soon we all know each other well. Who am I? a teacher
9. Look at the bottom row of pictures and listen to figure out which person is talking.
Did you find everything you were looking for? We have an extra value special today. Our soups are only half price. Who am I? a store clerk or a cashier

Who Am I?, continued

➔ Listen to what I read so you can figure out which person is talking.

