

About the Author

Linda Mulstay-Muratore, M.A., CCC-SLP, has worked as a speech-language pathologist since her graduation in 1996 from St. John's University in New York. She currently works for a private practice, The Therapy SPOT, in Hauppauge, New York, where she treats infant, preschool, and school-age children with a variety of speech and language therapy needs. Most recently, Linda has developed a series of successful social skills groups for the practice, targeting children with social and language disorders ages 3 to 12.

Preschool Apraxia Cards is Linda's sixth publication with LinguiSystems. She is also the author of Peek and Speak for Apraxia; Autism & PDD: Answering Questions, Levels 1 and 2; Reinforcers To Go; and No-Glamour Listening Comprehension.

Dedication

For my sweet and adorable nephew, Shane, in overcoming his own challenges as he learns to talk
