

Contents

Preface • v

Part I. Using the Motor Activities Program

- 1 Designing and Implementing Effective Motor Programs • 3
 - Basic Principles of Motor Learning • 3
 - Individualized Family Service Plans and Individualized Education Plans • 4
 - Guiding Principles for Setting Goals, Objectives, and Benchmarks in Individualized Plans • 5
 - Using Assessment Results in the IFSP and IEP Process • 5

- 2 Introduction to the Instructional Units and Subtests • 11
 - Description of the Units • 11
 - Organization of the Motor Activities Program • 13

- 3 Illustrations of Uses of the Motor Activities Program • 15
 - Case Study: Victor • 15
 - Case Study: Blake • 26

4	Adaptations for Special Learning and Motor Needs	• 43
	Principles of Motor Development	• 43
	Approaches to Intervention	• 44
	The Learning Environment	• 44
	General Teaching Guidelines	• 45
	Movement and Motor Developmental Characteristics of Children with Disabilities	• 45

Part II. Units and Activities

Unit 1: Reflexes	• 53
Unit 2: Stationary	• 61
Unit 3: Locomotion	• 73
Unit 4: Object Manipulation	• 111
Unit 5: Grasping	• 119
Unit 6: Visual–Motor Integration	• 135

References	• 167
-------------------	--------------