

About the Author

Jill C. Thresher, M.A., CCC-SLP, is North Carolina regional manager of speech-language pathology, physical therapy, and occupational therapy services for LOGOS Healthcare Rehabilitation. Her responsibilities include coordination of services, supervision and training of employees, ensuring appropriate service utilization, and development of systems for consistent documentation. Ms. Thresher received a B.A. degree in speech pathology and audiology from the University of Florida and an M.A. degree in communication disorders from the University of Massachusetts.

Ms. Thresher is co-author of Working with Swallowing Disorders, published by Communication Skill Builders.

© copyrighted material by PRO-ED, Inc.