

Linda Kavelin Popov is President and co-founder of The Virtues Project, Inc. She is a psychotherapist, organizational consultant and trainer who facilitates character education in schools, communities, corporations, government agencies, child and youth programs, and prisons in many countries. She has appeared on numerous TV shows, including The Oprah Show, and is the co-producer and principal of "Virtues: A Family Affair", a 13 episode TV series. She authored the international best-seller The Family Virtues Guide.