

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Evelyn R. Klein, PhD, CCC-SLP, is associate professor in the Department of Speech-Language-Hearing Science at La Salle University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Dr. Klein is a licensed speech-language pathologist with more than 25 years of clinical experience. She has obtained the Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association with board recognition in child language and a Supervisory Certificate in special education from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Dr. Klein has treated patients and supervised students in a variety of clinical settings, including schools and rehabilitation facilities, and currently evaluates and treats patients in private practice.

Dr. Klein is also a licensed psychologist in Pennsylvania. After completing a postdoctoral fellowship in clinical neuropsychology at Drexel University, she interned at Children's Rehabilitation Hospital in Philadelphia. Dr. Klein has been the principal investigator of a five-year federally-funded grant implementing an early childhood inclusion support program for the Mid-Atlantic Regional Educational Laboratory for Student Success in connection with the Institute of Educational Sciences of the United States Department of Education. She is published in the areas of language disorders, literacy, and fluency, and is a co-author of Focus on Transition, sold through PRO-ED, Inc.

Shelly E. Hahn is the executive director of Main Line Speech Consultants in Haverford, Pennsylvania. She has been in private practice for more than 20 years, treating individuals from preschool through geriatrics with speech and language deficits.

In addition to providing individual therapy, she serves as a consultant to various medical and educational facilities. She also serves on several professional advisory boards for special needs programs and home care agencies. She received her bachelor's degree from the University of Pittsburgh, master's degree in speech-language pathology from Ohio University, and MBA in health care administration from Temple University. Ms. Hahn holds the Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association and is a licensed speech-language pathologist. Ms. Hahn is co-author of Focus on Transition and is the author of the language portion of a standardized comprehensive assessment for preschoolers.