

■ Contents ■

Preface to the First Edition	xi
Preface to the Second Edition	xiii
Contributors	xv

Part I ■ ■ ■

Understanding Traumatic Brain Injury

Chapter 1

If Only I Had Known . . .	3
---------------------------	---

Karen Hux

Chapter 2

Epidemiology of Traumatic Brain Injury: Who, What, When, Where, Why, and How	9
---	---

Karen Hux

Chapter 3

Mild Traumatic Brain Injury	33
-----------------------------	----

Karen Hux

Chapter 4
Mechanisms of Injuries to the Brain 55
Karen Hux

Part II ■■■

Understanding the Role of Speech–Language Pathologists

Chapter 5
Assessing and Treating Individuals With Disorders
of Consciousness 81
Karen Hux

Appendix 5.A: Rancho Los Amigos Levels of Cognitive Functioning (I–X) 109

*Appendix 5.B: Disorders of Consciousness Scale (DOCS):
Neurobehavioral Evaluation Score Form for Non-Research
Purposes 115*

Chapter 6
Cognitive–Communication Deficits 121
Karen Hux

Chapter 7
Dysarthria Associated With Traumatic
Brain Injury 185
David R. Beukelman, Amy Nordness, and Kathryn M. Yorkston

© copyrighted material by PRO-ED, Inc.

Chapter 8

AAC Assessment and Intervention 227

Susan Fager and Renee Karantounis

Chapter 9

Dysphagia Associated With Traumatic
Brain Injury 255

Erin J. Bush and Trisha M. Funk

Appendix 9.A: Clinical Bedside Evaluation (CBE) 288

Part III ■■■

Understanding Reintegration

Chapter 10

Psychosocial Recovery Issues and Interventions
Following Traumatic Brain Injury 293

Christine E. Borgelt, Jeffrey Snell, and Karen Hux

Chapter 11

School Transitions 317

Christine E. Borgelt

Chapter 12

Transitioning to Work 353

Pamela Perry and Karen Hux

© copyrighted material by PRO-ED, Inc.

Chapter 13

The Injury of a Family 383

Jodi E. J. Palensky

Chapter 14

Ethics of Treatment: Do No Harm 395

Christine E. Borgelt, Emily L. Borgelt, and Carolyn Wright

Author Index 407

Subject Index 421

About the Editor 439

© copyrighted material by PRO-ED, Inc.