

1.

She had a new  on today.

2.

Which of these  is the new one?

3.

We must all get new .

4.

Is that new, or is it the same one?

5.

That girl has a new yellow .

1. Bring the boy some food to eat.

2. She will bring two  with her.

3. Just bring old  to the lake.

4. Why did you bring that  home?

5. Bring a  for me to sleep on.

1.

Next, we will look at an   .

2.

How do you turn off an   ?

3.

I put on an   before I begin.

4.

Always be kind to an  old dog.

5.

Watch him as he picks up an   .

1.
Do not fall and get hurt again.

2.
Look! The woman did not fall.

3.
Which leg did the man fall on?

4.
She began to fall off the horse.

5.
All of the  were about to fall.

1.

I could put this paper in a .

2.

We could ride down this street.

3.

I said, "I could go there too."

4.

We could walk through the garden.

5.

They could have had white .

1.

There is no such animal at a zoo.

2.

No! You may not drink that in here.

3.

No one can open this old .

4.

Mom said, "No, you may not go."

5.

No dogs should come in this store.