

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Joe Rothstein, M.S., CCC-SLP, is a speech-language pathologist in private practice in Santa Monica, CA. Joe received his bachelor's degree in communicative disorders from West Chester University and his master's degree in speech and hearing sciences from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is a certified member of the American Speech-Language Hearing Association (ASHA) and is licensed by the state of California in speech-language pathology.

Joe is also a musician with specialized training in music education for young children. He combined his skills as a musician and music educator with his expertise as a speech-language pathologist to create Power Tunes, a children's music CD designed to help toddlers and young children learn vocabulary, speech sounds, and early academic concepts. The Prosody Treatment Program is Joe's first publication with LinguSystems.
