This spirited group of writers from LinguSystems collaborated on No-Glamour Language Elementary. Together they have many years of experience educating and working with both the young and the old to improve their language skills. In true LinguSystems style, these authors also make it a priority to have fun with life and our language and hope that this philosophy is reflected throughout these pages.
