

About the Author

Regina G. Richards, M.A., is a Director and President of Richards Educational Therapy Center, Inc. and RET Center Press. She founded and was Director of Big Springs School for 27 years. Her professional emphasis has been in developing and providing multidisciplinary programs for students with language-learning disabilities, especially dyslexia and dysgraphia. Regina began her career in bilingual education, working on curriculum development and test design. A practicing educational therapist in Riverside, California since 1975, Regina has authored a variety of journal articles and books on reading, dyslexia, dysgraphia, learning/memory and visual development. She is a member of her local branch of the International Dyslexia Association, the Inland Empire Branch, where she served as president for seven years. She presents workshops and classes at the University of California Extension programs at both the Riverside and San Diego campuses. She is an accomplished speaker and presents at numerous conferences and workshops nationally.

Regina is also the author of The Source for Dyslexia and Dysgraphia.
