

What Is a Sentence?

A sentence is a group of words that tell a complete thought. A sentence tells about someone or something doing an action.

Sara unlocked the door.
Ned plays a game.

A sentence can also be a complete statement that describes someone or something.

Roses are red. Miguel is our new captain.

You capitalize the first letter of a sentence. You punctuate the end of a sentence. The ending punctuation for most sentences is a period.

Dandelions are weeds. We left our jackets on the bench.

➡ Use each word to write a complete sentence. Capitalize the first word. Use a period at the end of each sentence.

chocolate _____ dog _____

friend _____

tired _____

holiday _____

lunch _____

movie _____

phone _____

Direct and Indirect Questions ②

➔ Add the correct punctuation mark at the end of each direct or indirect question.

1. I can't decide whether to order one scoop or two
2. Which path should we take
3. Do you agree with me
4. I wonder if something bad just happened
5. Did she notice your new glasses
6. I don't know what looks different about you today
7. I wonder who will take Jenny's place
8. He wondered if that was the right answer
9. Can you tell how old this fossil is
10. She asked what you found under her bed
11. Do you know how this lock was broken
12. What caused the accident
13. He wondered if she would keep his secret
14. Let's ask them where they are going

