Narrative Stories

➔ Read each story to your students. Next have them tell you what happened in their own words. Then ask them the questions.

- I. A long time ago, a man lived alone in the mountains. One night he heard a knock at the door. He opened the door and saw a cold, hungry visitor. He let the visitor in, fed him soup, and gave him a place to sleep. The visitor said, “Thank you for your kindness. After I leave, you will have one wish.”

The next morning, the visitor was gone. The man said to himself, “I wish I didn’t have to live alone in these mountains.” He heard a knock at the door. He opened it and the visitor was there again. He invited the visitor in and asked him to live there. They became great friends and the man was never lonely again.
