

About the Author

Myra Shulman Auslin holds degrees in communicative disorders from the University of Wisconsin (BS) and Purdue University (MS). Now retired, she was employed by several school systems in Illinois and worked with students who are deaf or hard-of-hearing, students with a diversity of language and speech disorders, students with other special needs, and Head Start. The mother of two adult sons, Ms. Auslin lives in Skokie, Illinois, with her retired husband, Don, and their dog, Taffy, (whose communications she has yet to decipher). Currently her greatest joy is watching her 2-year-old grandson master language.
