A
A-B-C Model
  application to school situations, 302 feelings/behavior data, 310–311 generally, 299–302
irrational beliefs, 300–302
rational beliefs, 299–302
recording in functional behavioral analysis, 101–106
social-cognitive approach, 51–52
stress management, 369
teacher’s attending-to-student behavior, 395, 396
Accountability
  classroom management, 25–26, 38
  defined, 25
  for student progress, 219–220
Activity reinforcers, 144, 145
Adaptation of social skills, 269–270
AFROG procedure, 319, 320, 321
Aggressive student behavior, functions served and adaptive replacement behaviors, 100 Aim date, 242–244
Alarm reaction, 366
Albert and the White Rat study, 57
Alternative behaviors, 191
American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP), 362
Anger, emotional states contributing to maladaptive behavior, 114, 116 Anger management, 376–377, 381 Antecedents
  aversive consequences of punishers, 32
  defined, 32, 66
  environmental factors in behavior problems, 5, 31
  manipulation to prevent problem behavior, 32–33
  recording in functional behavioral analysis, 102–104
Anxiety, emotional states contributing to maladaptive behavior, 114, 116 Apathy, 201
Application of social skills, 269
Applied behavior analysis, 42
Approximations, 154–155
Arrangement of reinforcers, 151
Artificial reinforcers, 145, 146
Assessment
  belief assessment for noncompliant students, 121, 122 beliefs, 328–336
data. See Data for assessment Dead Man’s Test, 87–90
direct assessment of the environment, 47
self-assessment, 288–289 stress and behavioral issues, 365 of student learning, 18–19 student progress. See Measuring student progress teacher checklist/self-assessment, 390, 391 Assigned tasks, 10
Attending, defined, 52
Attention for non-task-related behavior, 17–18
Authentic practice of social skills, 264–265, 271
Availability heuristic theory, 345–346
Avoidance behaviors, 68, 201
Awareness of behavior, 112–113
B
Baseline data, 226
Beck Hopelessness Scale, 330
Behavior Intervention Plan (BIP), for social skills, 253 Behavior management, purpose of, 21 Behavior modification. See also Punishment bribery, 64
  defined, 42, 65
  effectiveness of, 63
  extinction, 70
  myths and misconceptions, 61–64 negative reinforcement, 68–69, 71–72 operant conditioning and, 43, 65–67 positive reinforcement, 67–68
  pragmatism, 63
  punishment, 70–72
reciprocal relationships, 72–73
symptom substitution, 63–64
systematic application, 65 systematic use of rewards, 62 token reinforcement, 62
Behavior reduction procedures, 185–190
Behavior rehearsal, 50
The Behavior of Organisms (Skinner), 57
Behavioral approach to behavior management
    case study, 43–47
demonstrated efficacy, 47
direct assessment of the environment, 47
operant conditioning, 43
operational steps, 46–47
overview, 42
strengths and limitations of, 47–48
target behavior, 47–48
Behavioral correlates, 115, 116
Behavioral model, 97
Behavioral rehearsal, 380
Beliefs
    assessment construction, 330–334, 335–336 assessment for noncompliant students, 121, 122 behavior and, 299
    competency that disputes belief, 306 competency that generates rational belief, 306 disputing, 306, 318–320 generation of, 306, 320–322 irrational. See Irrational beliefs learning, 302–303
mediating, 317–318
rational, 299–302
reasons for keeping, 319–320
unlearning, 303–307
Brainstorming, 353, 369
Bribery, 64
Broken record technique, 90
Buddies to help slower students, 38

Chaining student behavior
    self-motivation, 292
    strengthening behavior, 161–163
    teaching behavior problems, 404 Change agent scientist/researcher as, 57 subject/student as, 59–60 teacher/therapist as, 57–59 Changes, deciding how to make, 95–131 diagnosing behavior problems, 96–99 functional behavioral analysis, 99–100 functional behavioral analysis, completing, 101–110
Pre-Mod analysis, 110–131
Changes to make, 75–94
constructs, 77–79
judging behaviors, 81–84
performance objectives, 90–93
pinpointing, 79–81
sociocultural considerations, 84–86
steps to follow, 93–94
targeting behaviors, 86–90
Changing scene of reactive/positive approaches, 56–60
Cheating with self-reinforcement, 285–288 Children
    early achievement as stressor, 363
    early independence as stressor, 362–363 exposure to stress, 363
The Children’s Negative Cognitive Error Questionnaire, 330
The Children’s Self-Efficacy in Peer Interactions Scale, 330
Children’s Survey of Rational Beliefs: Form B, Ages 7–10, 330
Children’s Survey of Rational Beliefs: Form C, Ages 10–13, 330
Classical conditioning, 65–66
Classroom
    environment, 5, 28–29
    purpose of management, 21 student participation in, 37
Cognitions, 67
Cognitive behavior modification
    applications, 327–328
    A-B-C Model, 299–302
    belief assessment, 328–336 beliefs, learning, 302–303 beliefs, unlearning, 303–307 beliefs and behavior, 299, 300
    caveat emptor, 323–327
Caveat emptor, 323–327
Can’t: No Info, 258
Can’t: Not Mastered, 257, 258
CAP (criteria for acceptable performance), 92–93
Case study, behavioral approach to behavior management, 43–47, 50–54 Caveat emptor, 323–327
cognitions, 298
competencies for changing thinking behavior. See Thinking behavior, competencies for changing defined, 42 development of, 56
helpful hints for using, 354–358 level system for reinforcement, 355, 356 measuring student progress, 358–360
uses for, 297–298
Cognitive events, 298
Cognitive modeling, 340
Cognitive processes, 298 Cognitive restructuring
measuring student progress, 358–359
to modify feelings and behavior, 305, 309
stress management, 375, 380
unlearning beliefs, 303–307
Cognitive structures, 298
Cognitive-psychological interventions for stress, 368, 373–374
Competing activity, 148
Competing behaviors, 89
Conceptual framework stage of stress-inoculation training, 374, 375, 376–378
Conditioned suppression, 201
Conflict of interest in behavior management problems, 167 Consequence of operant behaviors, 66
Consequences of target behavior vs. maladaptive behavior, 118–120 Constructs
defined, 77
to describe student behavior, 78–79 interpreting factual events, 78 Jack and the construct, 76–77, 78 reasons for using, 77–78
Contingency contracting, 58, 404
Contingency for receiving rewards, 137
Contingency management of Grandma’s Rule, 169–170, 171
Continuous measurement of student learning, 18–19
Continuous sampling of student behavior, 229
Continuous schedule of reinforcement, 138, 147
Control of behavior by students, 113–117
Core beliefs
Doomsday thinking, 313–316, 326, 328, 329, 403
Fairy Tale thinking, 52, 313–316, 326, 328, 329, 403
I stink! thinking, 312–316, 325, 328, 329
irrational beliefs, 311–318
Namby Pamby thinking, 313–316, 326, 328, 329, 402
Robot thinking, 313, 314–316, 325, 328, 329, 402–403
You stink! thinking, 312–316, 325, 328, 329, 402
Cost contingency, 208–211
Council for Children with Behavioral Disorders, 186
Covert positive reinforcement, 290–291
Covert rehearsal, 380
Covert self-instruction, 340
Criteria for acceptable performance (CAP), 92
Criticism trap, 202
Cue sort technique, 119–120
Cultural considerations in determining maladaptive behavior, 84–86
Cultural relevance of lessons, 12–13
Curiosity, arousing for learning, 11
D
Dangles, 23–24
Data, defined, 226
Data for assessment
analyzing and interpreting the data, 241–248 baseline, 226
collecting the data, 222–225, 226–232
displaying the data, 235–241
frequency data, 225, 231–232, 234, 235 intervention, 226
plotting data, 236–239, 244–245
summarizing the data, 232–235
Dead Man’s Test, 87–90
Demonstrated efficacy, 47
Depression, emotional states contributing to maladaptive behavior, 114, 116 Deprivation and reinforcers, 138
Describing competencies, 75
Desist for misbehaving students, 22–23
Destination, target behavior as, 91
Development and Implementation of Leveled Behavior Management Systems (Sugai & Colvin), 182
Diagnosing Basic Skills (Howell & Kaplan), 111
Diagnosing behavior problems, 96–99
Diaphragmatic breathing, 371–372
Differential omission of undesirable behavior, 193–195
Differential reinforcement, 155–156, 190–193
Differential reinforcement interval (DRI), 395
Differential reinforcement of incompatible/alternative behavior (DRI/A), 191–193, 195–196
Difficulty of content, emphasis of, 14–15
Direct instruction, 16, 59
Direct measurement of student learning, 18–19
Direct observation of student behavior, 227
Discussion, 35
Disruptive student behavior, functions served and adaptive replacement behaviors, 100 Distal setting events, 33
DISTAR learning programs, 59
Does-do line, 246–248
Doomsday thinking, 313–316, 326, 328, 329, 403
Due process for behavior reduction procedures, 186
Duration of behaviors, 227, 228

E
Ecosystem considerations in deciding target behavior, 90
Effect, operant behaviors, 66
Elicited aggression, 201
Emotional environment, 29
Emotions, 67
Enthusiasm of teachers, for student learning, 11
Entitlements, 177
Environmental practices antecedents and setting, 5
classroom, 5, 28–29
classroom design, 5
classroom rules, 29–30
Kounin’s classroom management approach, 5, 21–28 manipulating antecedents, 31–33 modeling and impact of, 55
A New Learning Environment (Cohen), 59 routines, 30–31
setting events, 31, 33–35
social/emotional, 29
transitions, 31
Equal-interval chart, 236–238

E Escape behaviors, 68, 201
Eustress, 366
Evaluating Exceptional Children (Howell et al.), 110–111
Evaluating stage, Pre-Mod, 124, 126, 127
Event recording, 227, 230, 231
Executive function, 381
Exercise for stress management, 372–373
Expectations of behavior, 111–112
The Explosive Child (Greene), 381
Externalizing behaviors, 254
Extinction
comparisons to other methods, 72
defined, 70
examples, 70
operant technique, 46
weakening behaviors, 196–200, 209
Extinction burst, 46, 197
Extortion used by students, 176
Extra-strength motivation, 278 Extrinsic motivation
defined, 6, 134, 277
examples, 7
practices to promote on-task behavior, 5
purpose of, 134
rewards, 8, 19
self-motivation vs., 278–279
steps to get started, 20
on-task behavior, 20
Extrinsic rewards
are not bribery, 64
freedom of choice, 64

F
Faded overt self-guidance, 340
Fading behavior, 158–161, 404
Fair-pair behaviors, 88–89
Fairy Tale thinking, 52, 313–316, 326, 328, 329, 403
Family
changing family unit as stressor, 363
early independence as stressor, 362–363 student with adjustment problems and family stressors, 364 suicide and family unit, 362
Fast-paced instruction for presenting material, 16–17
Feedback
intrinsic motivation, 9 novel prompts for giving, 18
self-motivation, 293
Feelings
caused by thinking, 305, 308–309 identify events associated with, 305, 310–311 recognize own feelings/behaviors, 305, 309–310
strong/mild feelings can be helpful/harmful, 305, 307–308 Fight-or-flight stage, 366–367
Fixed schedule of reinforcement, 138, 149
Fixed-interval schedule of reinforcement, 152–153
Fixed-ratio schedule of reinforcement, 151–152
Flip-flops, 24
Fluency
self-motivation, 292
social skills, 268
Formative measurement, 220–225
Fragmentation, 25, 37
Free operant behaviors, 104
Frequency data, 225, 231–232, 234, 235
Frequency of behaviors, 227, 228, 231–232 Functional behavioral analysis
defined, 98
generating hypotheses, 104–107 getting started with, 35
good news/bad news, 108–110
history of use, 99
maladaptive behavior examples, 100 observing and recording, 101–104 teacher competencies for conducting, 110 testing the hypotheses, 107–108
uses for, 99
Functional behavioral assessment, 44
G
Games for learning, 11
Gender and intrinsic motivation, 9
General adaptation syndrome, 366
Generalization
positive reinforcement, 139
self-motivation and, 280
social skills strategies, 272–274
strengthening behavior, 183–184
Glance and record, 230, 234
Goal setting, 274
Good news/bad news
functional behavioral analysis, 108–110
Pre-Mod analysis, 128–131
Grandma’s Rule
advantages of using, 168 application to students, 167–168
background, 57, 166
self-motivation, 293–295
Groups group alerting, 26
small groups for teaching, 15, 38 stimulus/response units, 15–16
H
High-frequency behavior, 166
Holistic stress management, 368, 369
Holistic view of human behavior, 54
Home, stress in the, 363
Hypotheses. See also Theories functional behavioral analysis, 104–105 testable explanation, 105–106 testing, 107–108
I
I stink! thinking, 312–316, 325, 328, 329
IDEA (Individuals with Disabilities Education Act), 91, 181, 189
IEP. See Individualized Education Program (IEP) Immunity to consequences, 2
Impulsivity, emotional states contributing to maladaptive behavior, 114, 116
Incentives, 181
Incompatible behaviors, 89, 191
Independent seatwork, 35
Individualized Education Program (IEP) performance objectives for academic behaviors, 91 for social skills, 253
student expectations, 181–182
Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 91, 181, 189
Informed consent for behavior reduction procedures, 186–187 Injury behaviors, 201
Inner speech, 298
Inoculation stage of stress-inoculation training, 375, 380–383
Instructional approach, identification of, 14
Instructional objective, 90
The Intellectual Achievement Responsibility Questionnaire, 330
Intensity of behaviors, 227, 228
Interfering values, beliefs, emotions, and behaviors, 256
Internalizing behaviors, 254
Interpersonal problem, 347
Interval sampling, 229–230
Interval schedules of reinforcement, 151
Intervention data, 226
Intrapersonal problem, 347
Intrinsic motivation
  assigned tasks, 10
certainty of success, 9
defined, 6, 277–278
examples, 7
extra-strength, 278
feedback, 9
gender differences, 9
for improving retention and generalization of learning, 7–8 learning as successful experience, 14–19 mastery of the task, 9
practices to promote on-task behavior, 5 relevance of lessons, 12–13 research findings, 6–10
rewards, 8
self-determination, 8
steps to get started, 19
stimulating experience for learning, 10–12 student achievement and, 7 tangible reinforcement, 8
using social skills, 256–257
Intrusive behavior reduction procedures, 187 Involvement in lessons to encourage student learning, 12
Irrational beliefs
  A-B-C Model, 300–302
core irrational beliefs, 311–318
examples, 300–301
illogical or untrue, 300
unlearning, 303–304
J
Jack and the construct, 76–77, 78
Jerkiness of instruction, 23
Journal of Abnormal Child Psychology, 298
Journal of Applied Behavior Analysis, 58
Judging behaviors
  maladaptive behavior, 83–84
  rule violations, 81–82
  So What? Test, 83–84, 187
Judging competencies, 75
K
Kid Mod, 60
Kounin’s classroom management styles, 5, 21–28
L
“A Laboratory Study of Fear: The Case of Peter” (Jones), 57
Latency of behaviors, 137–138, 227, 228
Law of Effect (Thorndike), 57
Law of Reinforcement, 57
Learned helplessness, 201
Learning
  continuous measurement of, 18–19 direct measurement of, 18–19 Lecturing, avoiding, 12
Level system
  reinforcement of cognitive behavior modification, 355, 356
  strengthening behavior, 178–182
Life Events Checklist (LEC), 365 Locus of control
defined, 120
self-motivation and, 281
The Locus of Control Scale, 330
Low-frequency behavior, 166
M
Maintaining behavior, 45
Maladaptive behavior changing. See Changes, deciding how to make
  defined, 83
  So What? Test, 83–84, 187
Means to an end, 99, 109
Measuring student progress, 219–249
  accountability, 219–220
  analyzing and interpreting the data, 241–248
  cognitive behavior modification, 358–360
  collecting the data, 226–232
  displaying the data, 235–241
  monitoring, 225–248
  stress management program, 383–384
  summarizing the data, 232–235
  summative vs. formative measurement, 220–225
Mediating beliefs, 317–318
Mind control, 63
Minority student culture-bound behaviors, 85
Modeling
  cognitive, 340
  defined, 50
of desired behavior, 139–140
social skills, 259
teacher modeling of stress management, 384
Momentary differential reinforcement (MDRO), 193, 194, 405
Momentary-interval sampling, 230
Momentum of instruction, 23
Monitoring to measure student progress, 225–248 analyzing and interpreting the data, 241–248
collecting the data, 226–232
displaying the data, 235–241
summarizing the data, 232–235
Motivation
defined, 6
extrinsic. See Extrinsic motivation intrinsic. See Intrinsic motivation self-motivation. See Self-motivation N
Namby Pamby thinking, 313–316, 326, 328, 329, 402
Naturally occurring reinforcers, 145–146
Negative reinforcement
comparisons to other methods, 72
defined, 68, 134
examples, 68
maladaptive behavior and, 99 positive reinforcement vs., 69 punishment vs., 71–72
reciprocal relationships, 45
The Network of Relationships Inventory, 330
A New Learning Environment (Cohen), 59
The New Multidimensional Measure of Children’s Perceptions of Control, 330 Noncompliance behavior, functions served and adaptive replacement behaviors, 100 Noncontingent reinforcement, 137
Nonpunitive interruption of maladaptive behavior, 200
O
Objective, teaching to an, 15
Observational learning, 50
Observing in functional behavioral analysis, 101–104 Off-task behavior
functions served and adaptive replacement behaviors, 100
self-motivation, 283–285
On-task behavior
defined, 5
environmental practices, 5 increasing, 4–10
motivational practices, 5
self-motivation, 283–285
Operant, defined, 66
Operant aggression, 201
Operant behaviors, 66
Operant conditioning behavior modification and, 65–67
behavioral approach to behavior management, 43
extinction, 46
rewards and, 57 systematic application, 65
token reinforcement, 58, 59
Overcorrection, 211–213
Overdwellling, 25
Overlapping, 23
Overt external guidance, 340
Overt self-guidance, 340
P
Pain control, 53–54
Performance objectives, 90–93
criteria for acceptable performance (CAP), 92–93
purpose of, 91
for social behaviors, 91–93
special education, 91
Personal fable, 324
Personalizing content, 11
Physical environment in the classroom, 28–29
Pin the Punctuation Mark on the Sentence, 11
Pinpointing
defined, 79
examples and non-examples, 80 maladaptive, 80
sociocultural considerations, 86
Stranger Test, 79–81
target behavior, 80
Planned ignoring, 199
Polling students, 13
Positive behavior management, 4–10, 41–60 behavioral approach, 43–48
changing scene, 56–60
increasing student on-task behavior, 4–10
social-cognitive approach, 48–56
Positive practice, 212
Positive reinforcement
  comparisons to other methods, 72
coevert positive reinforcement, 290–291
defined, 67, 134
examples, 67
maladaptive behavior and, 99
negative reinforcement vs., 69
rules for using, 137–140
Pragmatism, 63
Praise for non-task-related behavior, 17–18
Predictable classroom environment, 29
Premack Principle
  background, 57
  contingency contracting, 58
  contingency management, 169–170, 171
  Grandma's Rule. See Grandma's Rule
  overview, 166
Pre-Mod analysis, 110–131
  good news/bad news, 128–131
  history of use, 98–99
  prerequisites, 111–123, 396–401, 405–407 sample worksheet, 130–131 stages, 124–126
  teacher competencies, 126–128 teacher maladaptive behavior, 405–407
  teacher's attending-to-student behavior, 396–401
Preparing Instructional Objectives (Mager), 91
Prerequisite deficit, 111
Prerequisite modification. See Pre-Mod analysis Primary change agent, 55
Primary reinforcers, 140–142 Proactive behavior management, 4–10 increasing student on-task behavior, 4–10 reactive behavior management vs., 4 Proactive responses, 390–401
Probable cause-and-effect relationship, 33 Problem
  defined, 347
  interpersonal, 347
  intrapersonal, 347
Problem solving
  availability heuristic theory, 345–346
  competencies, 347–354
  defined, 346–347
  defined problems and goals, 349–350 direct instruction approach, 348–349 evaluating solutions, 352–353 generating alternative solutions, 350–351
  measuring student progress, 359–360
  planning, 353–354
  reasons for, 346
  recognizing a problem, 347–349
  uses for, 339
Procedures in the classroom, 30–31
Progress measurement. See Measuring student progress Progressive relaxation training, 372
Proximal setting events, 33
Psychology as a Behaviorist Views It (Watson), 57
Psycho-medical model, 96–97
Punished by Rewards (Kohn), 64
Punishment
  aversive consequences, 32
  comparisons to other methods, 72
  defined, 70
  examples, 71
  negative reinforcement vs., 71–72
  overcorrection, 211–213
  punisher, defined, 70 reinforcement of bad behavior, 45
  reprimands, 206–208
  response cost, 208–211
  time-out, 213–216
  using effectively, 204–205
  when to use, 204
Punitivel behavior management, 1–3 consequences of, 2–3
  school practices, 2
  use of, 3
Punitive practices, 201–216
  overcorrection, 211–213
  reprimands, 206–208
  response cost, 208–211
  time-out, 213–216
  using effectively, 204–205
  when to use, 204
Q
Questions
  antecedent, 33
  The Children's Negative Cognitive Error Questionnaire, 330
  The Intellectual Achievement Responsibility Questionnaire, 330 question-asking teacher behavior, 394
R
Ratio schedules of reinforcement, 151
Rational beliefs, 299–302
Rational thinking, internalizing, 306, 322–323 Reactive behavior management, 1–3, 41–60
  behavioral approach, 43–48
  changing scene, 56–60
  consequences of, 2–3
  proactive behavior management vs., 4
  school practices, 2
  social-cognitive approach, 48–56
  use of, 3
Reactive responses, 390–401
Recess, social skills needed at, 254
Reciprocal determinism, 49 Reciprocal relationship
  defined, 72
  examples, 73
  negative reinforcement, 45
Recitation, 35
Recording functional behavioral analysis, 101–104
Redirection, 200
Reinforcement
  for behavior management, 60 differential, 155–156, 190–193
  differential reinforcement interval (DRI), 395
  differential reinforcement of incompatible/alternative behavior (DRI/A), 191–193, 195–196
  extrinsic, 19
  Law of Reinforcement, 57
  level system, 178–182, 355, 356
  momentary differential reinforcement (MDRO), 193, 194, 405 negative. See Negative reinforcement noncontingent, 137
  positive. See Positive reinforcement of the punisher, 201 schedules, 138, 147–154 self-reinforcement. See Self-reinforcement shifting criteria for, 156–157 of social skills, 256, 273–274 tangible, 8
  token reinforcement, 58, 59
  whole-interval differential reinforcement (WDRO), 193–195, 405 Reinforcers
  activity, 144, 145
  artificial, 145, 146
  choosing, 146–147
  defined, 67
  least-artificial and least-intrusive, 139 naturally occurring, 145–146 primary, 140–142
  secondary, 140, 141, 142–146
  social, 139, 142, 143
  tangible, 142–144
  token, 144–145
Relaxation training stage of stress-inoculation training, 375, 378–380
Relevance of content for student learning, 12–13, 37–38
Reminder strategies of social skills, 271–272
Reprimands, 206–208
Researcher to change agent, 57
Respondent conditioning, 65–66
Response cost, 175, 208–211
Restitution, 212
Restrictive behavior reduction procedures, 187
Rewards
  for behavior management, 62
  defined, 67
  entitlements, 177
  extrinsic, 8, 19, 64
  for following instructions, 36–37 intrinsic, 8
  only for acceptable behavior, 137, 138
  operant conditioning, 57
  Punished by Rewards (Kohn), 64
Ripple effect, 22, 23
Robot thinking, 313, 314–316, 325, 328, 329, 402–403 Role-playing anger-provoking, for stress inoculation, 382 assessing assertive behavior, 118 cognitive behavior modification, 355–356
  learning social skills, 265–266, 270–271
Room scanning, 390, 392
Routines in the classroom, 30–31
Rules in the classroom
  examples, 82
  getting started with, 30
  judging behaviors, 81–82
  prison rules, 30
  purpose of, 29
  student involvement in writing, 29–30 teaching of the, 30
S
Sampling student behavior continuous, 229
interval, 229–230
momentary-interval, 230 whole-interval, 230
Satiation, 27, 148
Schedule
continuous schedule of reinforcement, 138, 147
fixed schedule of reinforcement, 138, 149
fixed-interval schedule of reinforcement, 152–153
fixed-ratio schedule of reinforcement, 151–152
interval schedules of reinforcement, 151
moving from one schedule of reinforcement to the next, 153–154 ratio schedules of reinforcement, 151
of reinforcement, 147–150
Stressful Life Events Schedule (SLES), 365
variable schedule of reinforcement, 138, 149–150
variable-interval schedule of reinforcement, 152–153
variable-ratio schedule of reinforcement, 151, 152
Scientist to change agent, 57
Seatwork variety and challenge, 27–28, 37–38
Secondary reinforcers, 140, 141, 142–146
Self-assessment, 288–289
Self-determination, 8
Self-instructional training, 340–343
helpful hints for using, 341, 343
measuring student progress, 359
purpose of, 59
stages to control hyperactivity and impulsivity, 340 Think Aloud materials, 341 training program, 341, 342
uses for, 339
Self-management. See also Self-motivation
defined, 282
going started, for teachers, 28 teaching before cognitive behavior modification skills, 357
Self-monitoring, 282–285, 289–290
Self-motivation, 277–295
components, 282–288
events, 5
extrinsic motivation vs., 278–279 Grandma’s Rule, 293–295
power of, 280
rationale for using, 279–282
self-assessment, 288–289
self-monitoring, 289–290
self-reinforcement, 290–291
steps to get started, 21
student contract, 295
student responsibility for, 21
teaching, 291–293
three-stage model, 280–281
two-stage model, 280–281
Self-praise, 404
Self-regulated behavior, 55
Self-regulatory behavior change, 50
Self-reinforcement
cheating with, 285–288
choosing the reinforcer, 290
covert positive reinforcement, 290–291
student responsibility for, 283
Self-stimming behavior, 193
Setting events
calling-out behavior, 33–34
defined, 33
distal, 33
environmental factors in behavior problems, 31
definitions, 34
functional behavior analysis, 35
manipulation to prevent problem behavior, 34–35
proximal, 33
Shaping student behavior, 154–158, 159
Shaping teacher behavior, 404
Should-do line, 221–222, 241–246
Skillstreaming program, 259
Slowdowns, 24–25, 37
Smoothness of instruction, 23, 37
So What? Test, 83–84, 187
Social behavior/social skills, 251–275 adaptation of, 269–270
application of, 269
authentic practice, 264–265 categories and examples of, 253 choosing what to teach, 253–255 in-context lessons, 261–263
definitions, 252
diversity considerations, 266–267 extended practice, 270–272
externalizing behaviors, 254 fluency of social skills, 268 generalization planning, 274 generalization strategies, 272–274
internalizing behaviors, 254 lesson components, 258–261 lesson plan, finishing, 265–266 lesson types, 261–263
published programs, 267, 268 reason for teaching, 251–252, 258 recess social skills needed, 254 stand-alone lessons, 261–263 student need for skill information, 258–265 supervised practice, 263–264 teasing, dealing with, 266–267, 377 why a social skill is not used, 255–257
Social environment, 29
Social reinforcers, 139, 142, 143
Social-behavioral interventions for stress, 368, 374
Social-cognitive approach to behavior management, 48–56
case study, 50–54
operational steps, 51
overview, 42, 48–50
strengths and limitations of, 54–56
triadic reciprocity, 49
Sociocultural considerations in determining maladaptive behaviors, 84–86 Somatic-physiological interventions for stress, 370–373 diaphragmatic breathing, 371–372
exercise, 372–373
progressive relaxation training, 372
uses for, 368
The Stanford Preschool Internal-External Scale, 330
State-Trait Anxiety Inventory for Children, 52
Stimulating experience of learning, 10–12 Stimulus boundedness, 24, 37
Stimulus/response units, 15–16
Stranger Test, 79–81
Strengthening behavior, 133–163
chaining, 161–163
contingency management, 169–170, 171
defined, 134
fading, 158–161, 404
generalization, 183–184
Grandma’s Rule, 166–168
level system, 178–182
moving from one schedule of reinforcement to the next, 153–154
overview, 134–136
positive reinforcement for, 137–154
Premack Principle, 166–170
reinforcers, 140–147
response frequency and duration, 150–153 schedules of reinforcement, 147–150 shaping, 154–158, 159, 404
token economy, 170–178
Stress, defined, 366
Stress inoculation, 374–383 cognitive restructuring stage, 375, 380 conceptual framework stage, 374, 375, 376–378
defined, 374
inoculation stage, 375, 380–383 relaxation training stage, 375, 378–380 stress-script stage, 375, 380, 381, 401, 402 Stress management, 361–385
cognitive-psychological skills, 368, 373–374 concepts precluding stress-management strategies, 366–370 diaphragmatic breathing, 371–372
exercise, 372–373
holistic, 368, 369
measuring student progress, 383–384
progressive relaxation training, 372 social-behavioral skills, 368, 374 somatic-physiological skills, 368, 370–373 strategies for, 370–374 stress inoculation. See Stress inoculation stressors, 369, 371
student need for, 361–365
Subjective Units of Distress Scale (SUDS), 370
teacher modeling, 384
Stressful Life Events Schedule (SLES), 365
Stressor, defined, 366
Stress-script stage of stress-inoculation training, 375, 380, 381, 401
Student as change agent, 59–60
Subject as change agent, 59–60
Subjective Units of Distress Scale (SUDS), 370
Successive approximations, 154–155
Sufficient progress, 219, 226–227
Suicide, 362
Summative measurement, 220–225
Supervised practice, 263–264
Symptom substitution, 63–64
Systematic application, 65
T
Tangible reinforcement, 8, 142–144
Target behavior
behavioral approach to behavior management, 47
Dead Man’s Test, 87–90
defined, 47, 86–87
rules to determine, 87–90
strengthening, 188
student engagement of, 117–118
Target student, 47–48
Targeting competencies, 75
Targeting stage, Pre-Mod, 124, 125
Task analytical model, 111
Task analyzing stage, Pre-Mod, 124, 125
Teachable moments, 262
Teacher behavior, 387–408 anxiety-provoking situations for stress-inoculation program, 402 attending-to-student behavior, 395, 396, 397 checklist/self-assessment, 390, 391 effect on student behavior, 387–390 irrational thinking by teachers, 400
Pre-Mod analysis for maladaptive behavior, 405–407
Pre-Mod analysis prerequisites, 396–401, 405–407 proactive vs. reactive response, 390–401 question-asking, 394 stress script for stress-inoculation program, 401 verbal mediation, 402, 403
Teachers
as change agent, 57–59
competencies for conducting functional behavioral analysis, 110 competencies for conducting Pre-Mod analysis, 126–128 modeling stress management, 384
Teachers movie, 10
Teasing, social skills for dealing with, 266–267, 377
Testing. See Assessment Theories. See also Hypotheses availability heuristic, 345–346
triadic reciprocity, 49
Therapist as change agent, 57–59
Think Aloud materials, 341
Thinking behavior, competencies for changing, 307–323 cognitive restructuring to modify feelings and behavior, 309 develops plan to internalize rational thinking, 322–323 disputes belief, 318–320 feelings/behaviors often caused by thinking, 308–309 generates rational belief, 320–322 identify events associated with feelings, 310–311 mediation, 311–318
recognize own feelings/behaviors, 309–310
strong/mild feelings can be helpful/harmful, 307–308
Thought stopping, 42
Three-data-point rule, 245–246
Time-out, 213–216
Token economy
for behavior modification, 62 declared, 170
designing, 170–175
examples, 144–145
possible problems of using, 175–178
purpose of, 144–145
uses for, 59
when to use, 170
The Token Economy (Ayllon & Azrin), 58
Topography of behaviors, 227, 228
Transitions, 31, 32
Triadic reciprocity, 49
Truncations, 24
U
Universal design principles, 18
V
Valence, 26–27
Variable schedule of reinforcement, 138, 149–150
Variable-interval schedule of reinforcement, 152–153
Variable-ratio schedule of reinforcement, 151, 152
Verbal mediation, 343–345
essay, 403
examples, 343–344
measuring student progress, 359
purpose of, 343
sample essay, 344, 345
teaching behavior regulation, 402
uses for, 339
Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 182
W
Watch and record, 227, 230
Weakening behaviors, 185–217
  behavior reduction procedures, 185–190 differential omission of undesirable behavior (DRO), 193–196 differential reinforcement, 190–193
  differential reinforcement of incompatible/alternative behavior (DRI/A), 191–193, 195–196
  extinction, 196–200, 209
  momentary differential reinforcement (MDRO), 193, 194
  overcorrection, 211–213
  punishment, using effectively, 204–205 punishment, when to use, 204
  punitive practices, 201–216
  redirection, 200
  reprimands, 206–208

response cost, 208–211
time-out, 213–216
whole-interval DRO (WDRO), 193–195, 405
Whole-interval differential reinforcement (WDRO), 193–195, 405
Whole-interval sampling, 230 Withitness
  checking in with each student, 38 demonstrating, 22–23
  room scanning, 390
  social skills, teaching, 271–272
The Work of the Digestive Glands (Pavlov), 57

Y
Yeah, buts . . ., 222–225
You stink! thinking, 312–316, 325, 328, 329, 402